

To whom it may concern

It is an absolute privilege for us to write this letter of recommendation for Adele van der Walt Inc. to anyone considering surrogacy.

As a same-sex couple we made the massive decision of expanding our family after many years of tribulation and consideration. For us, the best option would be surrogacy. We found ourselves at a complete loss of knowledge on how to go about – who knew what a maze surrogacy could be!

From our very first contact with Adele van der Walt and her team, we were guided by competent, caring and compassionate experts in their field. From the onset we knew that, although this was our first experience, they were very highly experienced and resilient. That being said, they also fully embraced the fact that it was our first time, and shared all the knowledge they had with us, empowering us all the way.

Before we even had the question, Adele and her team had the answer. We knew from the onset that we had an ally on our side.

Another point of absolute admiration is the transparency of their fee structure. In my field of work I deal with legal professionals extensively and never before have I dealt with a firm that was as upfront about their fees. We were confronted with ZERO hidden costs that tend to sneak up on one.

The global Covid-19 pandemic crossed our paths far into the process, and it threatened to derail our process completely. I am in awe of the responsiveness and resilience in which the team handled this crisis. We were kept informed of the way forward constantly.

My husband and I are forever in your debt and could not do this without the support, advice and conscientiousness from your side. For anyone considering surrogacy, I not only recommend, but insist that you consider making Adele van der Walt and her team part of yours.

Forever gratefully yours
